The hearings will take place each day at the county court-house, commencing at 11 A. M., and it is not unlikely that the taking of testimeny and hearing argument will consume more than two days. Both parties will be represented by counsel and a large number of witnesses have been ordered to be summoned.

This matter was settled vesterday at a conference held in the office of Judge Minor, in Shafer's building, at which the only persons present were the Judge, ex-Judge Waddill representing the Republicans, Mr. Conway R. Sands on behalf of the Democrats (and himself their nominee for the Senate), and a reporter for the Dispute.

The speaker said that he had taken out notices yesterday morning to serve on the registrars at Smithers's and Jones's precincts, but found neither of them present. He had left a copy of the following with the wife of the registrar at the former

BLAIR-BILL BLAIR.

Yesterday.

About half-past4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Postmaster Cullingworth had as a visitor to his office a large and rather goodlooking elderly gentleman, with hair and beard of sandy color, who introduced himself as Senator Blair, of New Hampshire.
He said that he had just arrived in the city from Staunton and would like to be put in communication with some leading Republicans. He had the name of a Mr. Smith, but could not find him. He evidently expected to see Republicans in the post-office corps, but Mr. Cullingworth informed him that they were all Democrats. Our genial postmaster, however, undertook to pilot
the stranger into the presence of some of the latter's party friends, and at once escorted him up-stairs to the office of the Collector of Customs and there introduced him to Mr. Otts H. Russell.

The SENATOR INTERVIEWED.

Have you addressed large audiences? Well, as I said, I only spoke four times. Your audiences were largely colored, sero they not?

MAHONE.

MAHONE.

Have you seen General Mahone recently?
No, said Mr. Bleir, I have not, but I expect to see him to-night. I leave on the next train for Petersburg.

Just at this moment a tap was heard at the door and in walked Mr. Fisher, who handed the Senator a telegram.

His reply to Mr. Fisher after reading the telegram was: "Well, we have but a few minutes. Get the carriage and we will drive to the depot and I will spend the night in Petersburg. This is my opportunity to have a good talk with Mahone."

they, and you just discovered it in this election?

Here the reporter again protested that Mr. Blair was doing our people a violent injustice with his suspicions, but he said: Well, you must excuse me: I do not care about discussing the matter. I do not care to say anything more about it. The canvass is hot enough already.

NEW ENGLAND'S VIEW.

Are the New England people taking much interest in the election in Virginia? asked the newspaper-man.

The Senator laughed and said; Yes, a good deal of interest is manifested up there. We would like to see the solid South broken. We would like to see Virginia the first to fall into the Republican line, it would be the best thing possible for your people.

that as soon as the notice had been served on Registrar Carrington the Jones's Store petition should also be handed to him, so that the answers may be prepared.

The Petition.

In opening their petition the signers declare that they are legally-qualified voters at the precinct, &c., and add:

"That under the color of a statute of Virginia a bold, premeditated, and deliberate effort has been put on toot to disfranchise them, and they same has been carried out, and win prove effectual unless through the intervention of your those men their rights shall be respected and restored.

Following this the substance of the law regarding purging is given. The petitioners assert that their friends asked both the registrar and the Pemocratic managers.

Major Gaines objected to the part of the an agent to Europe. He wanted to see more interstate immigration. His county

Pittsylvania and Halifax counties and from North Carolina, and the Major was of opinion that Europeans will not come here unless they come in colonies.

Mr. Browne said the idea in sending a man to Europe is to get people to come here by thousands. The board, he said, tried Castle Garden and found that all people who land there have selected their nomes before leaving Europe.

Mr. Corbin said all States that have sueceeded in getting European settlers in

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Won't you please stir up the President of the Drummers' Democratic Club through your valuable paper and insist upon his calling his committee's attention to the drummers on the road? I have seen some seven or eight travelling men who stated to me that they would not be in Richmond to vote on the 5th of November unless called in by their firms. Now, please insist upon the importance of having these men at home. If I have only seen seven or eight of these travelling men, there must be more out that I have not seen. Now, do please insert this in your paper where it can be seen by every firm who travel men, that they may have time to call them in. We need every yote we can possibly get. More money is being spont out here than at any other election ever held.

A BENEFACTRESS

Just open the door for her, and Mra Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingals of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mra Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething aloge. MRs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP relieves the child from pain and curves dysentery and diarrhosa. It selfens the guma, reduces inflammation, cures wind-colle, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—mothing less. We have never seen Mra Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. Moents a bottle.
